ASSISTANT or ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR IN VETERINARY IMMUNOLOGY

Faculté de médecine vétérinaire
Département de pathologie et microbiologie

The Faculté de médecine vétérinaire of the Université de Montréal is currently seeking candidates to fulfill an assistant or associate professor position in veterinary immunology in the Département de pathologie et microbiologie.

The Université de Montréal is one of the top research universities in Canada. Applied and fundamental research in infectious diseases is a particular strength of our institution. The Département de pathologie et microbiologie currently has 27 professors and 13 extramural members in the areas of microbiology, epidemiology, immunology, pathology, parasitology, and veterinary diagnostics. Many professors are members of multidisciplinary research groups (http://www.medvet.umontreal.ca/RelD/UnitesRecherche.html). Training programs are offered at the undergraduate, graduate and post-graduate levels.

DUTIES:
− Teaching to students enrolled in the DVM program;
− Teaching and training of graduate students;
− Develop an autonomous research program in an area linked to the assignment; collaboration with ongoing research is also encouraged;
− Participate in outreach activities in immunology (publications, conferences, etc.);
− Contribute to the University activities.

QUALIFICATIONS:
− Doctorate in Veterinary Medicine (D.V.M.) or equivalent;
− Ph.D. degree in a field related to immunology or an equivalent training (or in the process of obtaining the degree);
− To be eligible to practice Veterinary medicine in the Province of Quebec (Canada) and obtain the license to practice if necessary; license is issue by the Ordre des médecins vétérinaires du Québec;
− Candidates must be able to communicate in French or be willing to learn French*.

TREATMENT: The Université de Montréal offers a competitive salary and a full package of benefits.

Employment Equity Program
The Université de Montréal upholds the principles of employment equity and welcomes applications from women, ethnic and visible minorities, aboriginals and people with disabilities.

* Linguistic Policy
The Université de Montréal is a Quebec University with an international reputation. French is the language of instruction. To renew its teaching faculty, the University is intensively recruiting the world’s best specialists. In accordance with the institution’s language policy (http://secretariatgeneral.umontreal.ca/fileadmin/user_upload/secretariat/dbc_officiels/reglements/administration/adm10-34_politique-linguistique.pdf), the Université de Montréal provides support for newly-recruited faculty to attain proficiency in French.

Confidentiality
The Université de Montréal application process allows all regular professors in the Department to have access to all documents unless the applicant explicitly states in her or his cover letter that access to the application should be limited to the selection committee. This restriction on accessibility will be lifted if the applicant is invited for an interview.

Immigration Requirements
In compliance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority shall be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.
