Sense Publishers

eBook Distribution Factsheet

Sense Publishers is a growing publisher of books in Educational Research and related fields, featuring a current backlist of nearly 800 titles and 140 new titles published annually. Sense publishes mostly monographs and edited volumes, usually ranging in length from 100 to 300 pages. A number of books are used as textbooks in graduate courses.

Most of the Sense eBooks are published in series, which include:

- New Directions in Mathematics and Science Education
  Series Editors: Wolff-Michael Roth (University of Victoria, Canada) and Lieven Verschaffel (University of Leuven)
- Global Perspectives on Higher Education
  Series Editor: Philip Altbach (Boston University)
- Bold Visions in Educational Research
  Series Editor: Kenneth Tobin (City University of New York)

All books that Sense publishes are part of the Humanities, Social Sciences and Law Collection. Springer does not have the print distribution rights for these publications.
