Asia Briefing Ltd.
eBook distribution factsheet

Asia Briefing Ltd. publishes a wealth of information about China, India, Vietnam, and Russia and is one of the premium English language publishing businesses in Asia today. Working in conjunction with Dezan Shira and Associates, the group is one of the few firms in Asia with the resources, research and intellectual capabilities able to provide the intensive and detailed information found in Asia Briefing’s publications.

www.asiabriefingmedia.com

All scientific, English books that Asia Briefing publishes in 2011/with 2011 copyright year will be part of the appropriate eBook collections. It is estimated that this will be a total 10-15 titles per CRY. The majority of titles will fit in the Business and Economics collection. They are a very well reputed consulting company with good practitioner’s guides to doing business in China.

- Springer has acquired the exclusive distribution rights for eBooks and print as well.
- No backlist titles are included in the deal, however we will take the backlist and republish a new edition with small updates, making it frontlist again.

List of forthcoming titles:
- Business Guide to China’s Emerging Second and Third Tier Cities
- Business Guide to South China and the Greater Pearl River Delta (Second Edition)
- Business Guide to Beijing and Northeast China
- Business Guide to Central China (New Edition)
- Business Guide to West China (New Edition)
- China’s Neighbors (New Edition)
- Human Resources in China
- Transfer Pricing in China
- Setting Up Representative Offices in China (Third Edition)
- Setting Up Wholly Foreign Owned Enterprises in China (Second Edition)
- Setting Up Joint Ventures in China (Second Edition)
- The China Tax Guide (Fourth Edition)
- Mergers and Acquisitions in China
- Intellectual Property Rights in China

More information on the Asia Briefing Ltd. books can be found on their website.