Sense Publishers is a publisher of academic (scientific) books, predominantly in the area of educational research. Sense publishes mostly monographs and edited volumes, usually ranging in length from 100 to 300 pages. A number of the books are used as textbooks in graduate courses.

Most of the Sense books are published as part of series. Some of the most notable series are:

- New Directions in Mathematics and Science Education
  Series Editors: Wolff-Michael Roth (University of Victoria, Canada) and Lieven Verschaffel (University of Leuven).
- Global Perspectives on Higher Education
  Series Editor: Philip Altbach (Boston University)
- Bold Visions in Educational Research
  Series Editor: Kenneth Tobin (City University of New York)

All books that Sense publishes in 2011/with 2011 copyright year will be part of the Humanities, Social Sciences and Law Collection. It is estimated that this will be 90 titles. Springer does not have print distribution rights.
