Towards a Professional Model of Surrogate Motherhood
R. Walker, University of Waikato, Hamilton, New Zealand; L. van Zyl, University of Waikato, Hamilton, New Zealand
This book delves deeply into modern surrogacy arrangements, responding to both practical and ethical critiques by offering a radically new model for surrogate motherhood. Current practice distinguishes between two models of surrogacy – the altruistic (unpaid) model and the commercial (paid) model, both of which present social, ethical, and conceptual challenges.
